Lisa Fetrow REALTOR®

Lisa Fetrow

Energetic and detail-oriented, Lisa's multi-million dollar production earned Coldwell Banker's recognition as a member of their 2016 International President's Circle, as well as their 2015 International Diamond Society. Her constant focus on helping make the home selling or buying process a smooth one is a great asset for her customers.

Lisa graduated with a bachelor's degree in Economics from the University of California, Davis and taught U.S. History and Economics at the high school level for seven years. In 2009, Lisa and her family moved from Sacramento, CA to Atlanta, GA. While in Atlanta, Lisa obtained her real estate license and with her husband and other partners, purchased, renovated and then sold, lease purchased or rented over twenty homes in just two years.

Lisa, along with her husband, Jason, and two children, Jackson (9) and Mckinley (6), has lived in Gainesville since 2013. In addition to being a top producer for Coldwell Banker M.M. Parrish, Realtors, Lisa, a former collegiate water polo player, teaches five classes a week at Gainesville Health and Fitness. Lisa's high energy approach to life helps her exceed your expectations!
