Dear Dr. Flynn,

Many of your residents and fellows will soon be making the transition into the next stage of their careers. More than ever, they will need a trusted resource that will help them answer clinical questions quickly at the point of care.

UpToDate is that resource. Our faculty of over 5,100 physician authors, editors and peer reviewers synthesizes the medical literature, incorporates the latest information, and provides specific, evidence-based recommendations for care.

In fact, UpToDate is the only clinical knowledge system associated with improved outcomes.¹ Studies have shown that UpToDate is associated with:

- Reduced length of stay
- Improved hospital quality metrics
- Reduced mortality
- Reduced adverse complications

Additionally, you may be interested to learn that in a recent survey of internal medicine residents, 95% reported that UpToDate was the most effective resource for learning, and 90% reported that it was their first choice for answering clinical questions.² This observation is echoed by regular users of UpToDate, who report that it helps them answer clinical questions, make more confident decisions, provide improved patient care, and stay current — all while earning CME credit.

Graduating trainees who subscribe to UpToDate by July 31, 2013 qualify for the UpToDate special trainee rate: $199 for one year (a $300 savings compared with the full professional subscription price) or $369 for two years (a savings of more than $500).³
To take advantage of these savings, residents and fellows simply need to fax or mail the enclosed subscription form with proof of status and payment, or call us at 1-800-998-6374. They can also order online at learn.uptodate.com/trainee and send proof of status with their online order confirmation number.

With UpToDate at their fingertips, your residents and fellows can move into the next stage of their careers with confidence.

Your trainees will get unlimited online access to clinical answers from their computer, mobile device or tablet. Our highly-rated Mobile Apps are optimized for most leading platforms including iOS and Android™, so they can find the information they need — anytime, from anywhere. We offer a free App with your subscription, or you can upgrade to UpToDate MobileComplete™ for an additional $49 and install our full content on your smartphone or tablet.†

Let your graduating trainees know that when this special offer expires at the end of July, they will no longer be able to subscribe to UpToDate at this low price. So encourage them to order today to take advantage of this limited-time opportunity.

Sincerely,

Burton Rose
Burton D. Rose, MD
Founding Editor, UpToDate

P.S. With an individual subscription, your graduates can earn CME credit when they research a question using UpToDate.
